

SUBURBAN NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Barton Heights.

Mr. William H. Kellogg, who has been visiting Mr. D. K. Kellogg, near the Seminary, has returned to his home in New York City.

Jack Talson, who has been quite sick for some time with the malarial fever, is now able to be out again.

List of scholars on the roll of honor for the week ending at the Barton Heights School Friday, May 22, 1908:

Junior B Grade, Miss Mabel Glinn, teacher—Louise Taylor.
Sixth Grammar Grade, Miss Mabel Glinn, teacher—Stella James and Alice Smith.

Fifth Grammar Grade, Miss Kate Glinn, teacher—Elizabeth Jeter and Grace Chamberlain.

Fourth Primary Grade, Miss Winston, teacher—Harold Goynes, Otha Kittinger, Lillian Ragland, Bonabelle Amory, Ethel Baughman, Violet Chamberlain, Grayson Leadbetter and Gracie Phillips.

Third Primary Grade, Miss Winston, teacher—Hugh Leach, Frank Taylor, William Taylor, Kathleen O'Bannon and Lillian Harding.

Second Primary Grade, Miss Pauline Gray, teacher—Evelyn Harris, Edith Fitzwillson and Grace Hodge.

First Primary Grade, Miss Gary, teacher—Elizabeth Armstrong, Mary Carpenter, Florence Harris, Louise Kellogg, Lindsey Satterfield, George Figner, Sam Humphrey, Joseph Peaseley and Edward Richardson.

Mr. Huggins, of Brook Road, is visiting in Caroline county, on a pleasure trip. The examinations at the Barton Heights schools will commence next week.

Mrs. Hill, who has been quite sick at her home near Lakeside, is improving rapidly.

Miss Ella Thorpe, of Dumfries, who has been visiting Miss Stella James, of Brook Road, has returned home.

Miss Little Baughman, of Luck Avenue, who has been absent from school for a few days, has resumed her studies at the Barton Heights School.

Mr. David Grass will leave for Baltimore, Md., on a business trip next week.

Mrs. Walker will leave Tuesday for St. Louis, Mo., on business.

Mr. James Brown, of North Avenue, will leave Monday for Ashland, Va.

The Young Girls' Sunbeam Society of the Baptist Church will meet Friday afternoon at half-past 4 o'clock at the church.

Miss Louise Moore is very sick at her home on Lock Avenue.

Mr. Hansford will leave for North Carolina Tuesday on a business trip.

Mr. Douglas Wilkinson, who has been visiting his grandmother, of Creighton Road, has returned home.

Rev. C. P. Scott, who has been quite sick at his home on Virginia Avenue, is improving.

Mr. W. K. Bache has returned to his home on Lamb Avenue and Dove Street from a business trip to Staunton, Va.

Miss Mary Martin, of Louisa, is visiting her sister on Brook Road.

Mrs. Arthur B. Gray and daughter, Virginia, who have been visiting Mrs. Charles C. Rader and Mrs. William Spratley, of Highland Park, have returned to their home in Staunton, Va.

Mr. Bryant, who has been visiting in New York, has returned to his home on North Avenue.

Mr. Young has returned to his home in Brookland Park after a visit to Mr. White, of West Virginia.

Mr. Simpson, who has been visiting Mr. Alvin, of North Avenue, has returned to his home in New York.

Mrs. Alice, of Hanover, Va., who has been visiting friends in Brookland Park, has returned home.

Mrs. Bowles, of Caroline county, Va., who has been staying with Mrs. J. Jeter, of Ladies' Mile Road, is now visiting friends at Forest Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Winans, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lea, have returned to their home in Elizabeth, N. J.

Mr. Waits has returned to his home after a visit to friends in Washington, D. C.

Mr. Tunison, who has been visiting relatives in Norfolk, Va., has returned to his home on Strawberry Hill.

Mr. R. L. Perkins, of Newport News, is visiting relatives in Brookland Park.

Miss Mary King, of Williamsburg, is visiting relatives near Lakeside.

Mr. Peter Crump, of Mayeville, is expected Friday to visit his aunt in Brookland Park.

Mr. Edwin Booth left yesterday for Norfolk, Va.

Mr. Wright has returned home after a visit to friends and relatives in Washington, D. C.

Mr. White, of Brookland Park, has left for North Carolina on business.

Miss Craig, of Petersburg, Va., is visiting in Brookland Park.

Mr. Lacy, who has been visiting her sister, has returned to her home in Amelia Courthouse, Va.

Miss Armstrong has returned to her home in Warren from a delightful visit to relatives.

Miss Curley, who has been very sick at her home in Brookland Park, is improving.

Mrs. Kingsbury, of Missouri, is the guest of Mrs. O. M. Moore, of Luck Avenue.

Mrs. Delrick Schwartz has returned to her home on Virginia Avenue after a pleasant visit to her daughter, Mrs. Dr. M. Hoke, of York, Pa.

Mrs. Thomas Armstrong and children have returned to their home on Montrose Avenue after a delightful visit to friends in West Virginia.

Mrs. Jones, who has been visiting Mrs. Hill, near Lakeside, Va., has returned to her home in Hanover county, Va.

Miss Alice Hill, of Cold Harbor, is visiting friends on the Heights.

The next meeting of the Epworth League will be held at the home of Misses Ida and Maria Lee, of Miller Avenue, on the second Tuesday night in June.

Mr. William Johnson will leave Monday for Petersburg, Va., on a pleasure trip.

Mr. Price Smith left yesterday on a business trip to Baltimore, Md.

Mr. Fields, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Norfolk, has returned to his home on North Avenue.

Miss Carrie Brown is quite sick at her home in Brookland Park.

Mr. Thompson, who has been visiting in North Carolina, has returned home.

Mrs. Tiller is convalescing at her home on North Avenue.

Mr. Robert Scott, of Miller Avenue, has returned to his home from Bedford City, Va., where he went to attend the opening of the Elks' Orphanage.

Mr. G. C. Personette, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Schuler and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Summers, of Virginia Avenue, has returned to his home in Baltimore, Md.

Mr. E. B. Vaughan, who has been visiting Mr. W. E. Eaton, of North Avenue, has returned to his home on Chestnut Hill.

Mrs. Duncanson, of North Avenue, has left for Raleigh, N. C.

Mrs. Tiller, who has been quite sick at her home on North Avenue, is improving.

Mrs. McGee, who has been quite sick at her home on North Avenue, is able to be out.

Mrs. Moore, of Missouri, is visiting Mrs. O. M. Moore, of Luck Avenue.

Miss Hattie Jenkins, of Yellow Tavern, is visiting in Goodland.

Mrs. Eva Moore, of Charlotte, is visiting friends near the Seminary.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkeley, of Portsmouth, are visiting friends on the Heights.

Miss Peaseley, of Hanover, is visiting her grandmother, on Luck Avenue.

Mr. Motto Martin has left for Farmville.

Miss Lona Kelly, who has been visiting in Scottsville, Va., is now visiting in Lynchburg.

Mr. Joe Henley, of Lakeside, Va., has left for New York.

Mr. Alfred Smith has returned home from a business trip to Lynchburg, Va.

Mrs. Carter, who has been visiting her sister on Poe Street, has returned to her home in West Virginia.

Mrs. Williams, of Luray, is visiting friends in Brookland Park.

Mrs. Clarke, who has been visiting near the Seminary, has returned to her home in Suffolk, Va.

Chestnut Hill and Highland Park.

Master Charles W. Vaughan, of Third Avenue, Highland Park, gave a picnic on the lawn in honor of his tenth birthday Wednesday evening from 5 to 8. A most enjoyable evening was spent, and after indulging in games of many kinds the children gathered around the table, where delightful refreshments were served. Those present were: Charles Boggs, Keeling, Sisson, Linn, Enslow, Charlie Cross, Frank Wingfield, George Cary, Eddie Seal, Thomas Starke, Irvin Taylor, Charles W. Vaughan and Thomas Scott.

Mrs. Quinby, of Third Avenue, Chestnut Hill, who has been visiting in Ashland, has returned home.

Children's day exercises will be celebrated at Highland Park Methodist Church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Quite an interesting programme has been arranged under the management of Miss Lizzie Boggs.

Masters Charles and John Boggs, of Lawrenceville, Va., are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boggs, of Highland Park.

Miss Rhynia Long, who spent the winter on Chestnut Hill, has returned to her home in Seaboard, C.

Mr. Lear, of Church Hill, has moved in his handsome residence on Highland Park, which has just been completed.

Miss Emma Redford is visiting Mrs. Charles J. Eubank, of Second Avenue.

Mr. Bellair, of Highland Park, who has been visiting her brother, Mr. Frank F. Rennie, of Fourth Avenue, Chestnut Hill, has returned home.

Mr. S. P. Christian has returned home after a delightful visit to Dr. J. E. Warner, of Huntley Hall.

Mr. John Oils has returned after visiting Mr. A. L. Seay, of Shore View, Va.

Mr. Mayor Willis, who has been quite sick at the Old Dominion Hospital, expects to return to his home, Third Avenue, Highland Park, this week.

Rev. W. Johnson and family, who have been visiting Mrs. J. B. Rennie, of Fifth Avenue, are expected to return home.

Preaching at Highland Park Church this morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. B. Rennie.

Preaching at Mizpah Church at 11 o'clock by Rev. Dr. D. K. Walthall. No preaching at 7 o'clock.

Roll of honor for the week ending May 22:

Senior A—Mary Huffman (23), Alice Shaffer (19), Susan Pemberton (19), Mabel Beard (20), Wilbur Huffman (20).

Intermediate A—Bessie Marshall (23), Ruth Renala (23), Kate Lewis (23).

Junior A—Eula M. Bowman (9), Rebecca B. Clarke (9), Edna Bowman (9), Alice Willis (23), Lella O. Wingfield, Annie B. Sale.

Fourth grammar grade—Mildred C. Clarke (20), Bettie Ratcliffe (6).

Eighth primary grade—Ida Catlin (8), Rennie (2), Sadie Frazer, John Diving.

Fourth primary grade—Harold Wilder, Eleanor Enslow, Roy Bowman, Earnest Huffman (6), Blanche Huffman (2).

Sixth primary grade—Louise Henley (6), Leola Diving (6), Sue Starke (6), Frank Rennie (2), Sadie Frazer, John Diving.

Fourth primary grade—Harold Wilder, Eleanor Enslow, Roy Bowman, Earnest Huffman (6), Blanche Huffman (2).

Rev. J. O. Babcock will preach at the Fairmount Methodist Church Sunday at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. His morning theme will be "Jabez, a most despicable young man, who had a bad start in life."

Night's subject will be, "A Father's Dying Message to his Son."

Howard's Grove Fishing Club went on their first outing to the swamps this week. They met with much success, capturing about three hundred and fifty fishes, and one turtle weighing forty-five pounds. Those who enjoyed the sport were: R. W. Pierce, John O'Connell, William Coleman, John Pierce, George Wright, W. Bryant, George Hart, B. Hart, Charlie Conaway.

Mr. S. N. Collins' condition is still critical. He has suffered two strokes of paralysis since last Sunday.

Mrs. W. W. Pendleton, of Venable Street, left Friday for Fredericksburg, to visit relatives, and expects to be absent several weeks.

Little Jim Anthony, of Twenty-second Street, while playing with another little boy last Wednesday, was painfully hurt, but is doing very nicely.

Eddie Perdue has returned home from Fredericksburg, where he went as a delegate of the Gray Eagle Tribe of Red Men to the Grand Lodge, which met in that city last week.

Mrs. Napier has taken a flat with Mrs. W. A. World, on Twenty-first Street, and Mrs. W. A. World's two little children, who have been sick, are much better.

Mrs. C. L. Arnall, of Twenty-third Street, is much improved.

Mr. B. C. Thompson and family are boarding with Mrs. Cook at No. 111 Twenty-first Street, for the summer, and will build their new house in the early fall.

Mrs. Goodwin and children and Mendam Troxler and Gary were the guests of Mrs. G. W. Troxler last week.

Miss Sallie Miller is sick at her sister's, Mrs. W. B. Huff, No. 1129 Twentieth Street.

Mrs. Lena Keck Brauer, who has been so extremely ill for some time, is convalescing slowly.

John Atkins, of Fairfield, has recently purchased seven lots on Twentieth Street, and will begin building very soon.

John Jeter was accidentally shot about eleven years ago by a companion, and has suffered from the effects of the wound ever since. He was successfully operated on Friday by Dr. Parker, who removed four shots from his forehead.

Parke P. Pollard, who has just recovered from a severe spell of pneumonia, has left to visit his mother, at Granite, Va.

Mrs. C. S. Wright, of Marburg, visited her brother, P. P. Pollard, on Twenty-fourth Street, last week.

The Daughters of Liberty have a flourishing council, which meets every Monday night at Howard's Grove Hall.

Miss Lella Livenay will give a pie party at her home, at the corner of Twenty-second and T Streets, Tuesday night, for the benefit of the King's Daughters of Christ Church.

Miss Rebecca Hardwick and Miss Mary Simson, delegates to the Home Mission Society, which was held at Northampton, will address the Home Mission Society of Fairmount Methodist Church next Monday. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Christ Church Brotherhood, to which a goodly number of Fairmount's young men belong, will run an excursion to Dumfries, on June 2d.

The dangerous crossover on Twenty-second Street, near Carrington, has been repaired, after a long wait.

Fairmount children are delighted to welcome the electric lights. The lamps were placed in position on the poles yesterday, and we look for the lights to-night, which will add so much to the comfort of the people, and by the way, we are having a better car service and cleaner cars, which is greatly appreciated by all.

Miss Martha M. King, of Brunswick county, is visiting Mrs. Elmore, at No. 1239 Twenty-second Street.

Mrs. W. S. Haynes and Miss Ida Haynes will leave for Baltimore tomorrow, to visit Mrs. B. C. Stonnell, who recently moved to that city.

Fairmount Methodist Sunday-school will have their picnic at West Point June 30th, and expect to carry a large crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atkinson have moved to Mattox Hill to reside. Mrs. Atkinson was Miss Florence West, of the West End, and the couple were married last Monday night.

Rev. C. C. Cox will occupy his pulpit at both services to-day.

Mrs. Rooney, of No. 1106 Twenty-first Street, gave a box party Friday night at her home for the benefit of the King's Daughters. Mr. Albie Huff was present with his graphophone and delighted the hearers with some of his latest comical selections. Mr. Ginter added much to the pleasure of the evening by rendering several vocal selections. A large crowd was in attendance and a nice sum realized.

Mr. John Schnmidt, of Howard's Grove Hill, is still in a critical condition with neuritis of the brain.

Mr. A. N. Calhoun, of Nottoway county, is spending some time with his daughter, Mrs. Miller, on Twenty-third Street.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church had a tacky party at Howard's Grove Hall Thursday night, for the benefit of the church debt. A nice sum was realized and the occasion enjoyed by all present.

Mr. W. H. Rowland, of the West End, visited his daughter, Mrs. J. N. Halsey, on Twenty-second Street, Thursday.

The funeral of Mrs. Tom Collins, of Twentieth Street, who died at the Retreat Thursday night, will take place from Christ Episcopal Church to-day at 3 P. M. Mrs. Collins had been in ill health for some time, but had been confined to her bed only four weeks. She leaves, besides her husband, three boys by a former marriage, Messrs. Willie, John and Preston Anderson, and one sister, Mrs. Bowers, of Scott Street, to mourn their loss.

Mr. Sallywhite, of Twenty-first Street, is quite sick.

Mrs. Hoti, who has been ill so long, is resting easier to-day.

Mrs. Sarah Parvy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gray, of Bolling Green, who is sick, but is improving.

Mr. Joseph Gregory is beautifying his home by having it painted.

The contents of "Gather the Beautiful Queen," in which a number of Fairmount's singers took parts, has closed engagements for the season, but will reopen again in the fall for children.

Little Laura Wright is quite indisposed at her parents' residence, on Twenty-third Street.

Miss Linda Jeter is drilling the children of Fairmount Sunday-school for a drill for the piano fund. She is also rehearsing the little ones for children's day, and the twelfth anniversary of the Sunday-school, to be the first Sunday in June.

Mr. R. O. Atkinson, of Mosby Street, is much improved.

Mrs. Thomas Anderson, of Twenty-second Street, is having new front fences and other general repairs made to several of her houses in Fulton, on Louisiana Street.

Mr. William Lynham, of West End; Mrs. Preston Nash, of East Franklin Street; Miss Mary Mead and Master Lynne Mead, of Venable Street, are the guests of Mrs. Nettie Newberry, on the Avenue.

Winter's addition to Howard's Grove (known as Sales' estate), was sold last week to a syndicate, which proposes to improve and develop the property at once. Workmen are now busy laying off streets and otherwise improving this tract, preparatory to placing it on the market. It is located at the terminus of the Fairmount or Twenty-third Street branch of the City Street car line.

Messrs. Willie White and John Garrett will be ordained deacons at Fairmount Baptist Church Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Solly, of Emmanuel Baptist Church, will conduct the ordination services, assisted by Rev. Joel T. Tucker and others in the laying on of hands.

There will be preaching at Bulah Church to-day at 8:30 P. M. by the pastor, Rev. A. Osburn, also Sunday-school at the usual hour—8 o'clock.

Miss Bertha Peace and Mr. William Burnett were married Sunday last by Rev. J. Tucker, of Richmond. They will make their future home at the home of the groom, near Black Creek Church.

Mrs. A. Martin has returned home from Richmond, much delighted with her visit to friends and relatives.

Mr. Luck has moved one of his largest saw mills, Jumbo, on the Watt farm, where he will be busily employed for three months or more.

Messrs. Kate and Mrs. Nannie Adams spent a very pleasant day in Richmond with their friends and relatives during the past week.

Little Miss Mattie Kellum is on a visit to her aunt, in Hanover.

Miss Ruth White is somewhat improved. Her friends are still alarmed about her condition.

Little Leaver Burnett is getting on nicely.

Summer Goods at Summer Prices.

Furnish Your Home at Cash Prices and Use Our Modern Credit System.

Some people are so blind to their own interests they don't see the passing of the caravan—the caravan of high prices.

No agents, no notes, no bonus of any kind, and no prying into your personal affairs. Everything marked in plain figures, way below so-called credit house prices, and terms made to suit everybody.

Specials This Week in Go-Carts and Refrigerators

10 to 20 Per Cent. Off Every Go-Cart.

10 to 20 Per Cent. Off Every Refrigerator.

REFRIGERATORS
to hold the ice and water together that were $14, now $11.98.
Some as low as $7.45, as high as $15.

MATTINGS, PERFECTION OIL-STOVES, IRON BEDS AND ALL SUMMER FURNISHINGS AT REDUCED PRICES.

Ryan, Smith &amp; Talman, 609 E. Broad.

Sole Agents for the Direct Action Gas Range. Every one put up free of cost and guarantee.

7 Feet of Gas Will Finish Biscuits on Hot Backs. This Includes Heating Oven and Baking.

ly from injuries received several days ago from a fall.

Mrs. Fannie Sniffer is still ill at the home of Mrs. Stewart, at Cold Harbor.

Mrs. James Jones seems to be doing well this morning.

Miss Gertie Burnett is ill with the measles and pneumonia.

SEVEN PINES.
Corinth M. E. Church. Preaching every second and fourth Sunday at 8 P. M. Sunday-school at 2:15 P. M.

Special invitation is extended to the city people who come to Seven Pines on Sunday afternoons to visit the church, which is a very pleasant walk from the cars.

Children's Day exercises on last Sunday went off beautifully, each pupil doing his best and the school full justice, besides being very happy. The hearts of all present were gladdened. The church was well filled on this occasion.

Miss Carrie Lyne and Mr. Charles Reid went with the yachting party on the annual outing of the yacht Cecelia to Drewry's Bluff on yesterday.

Miss Annie Reid, who has been quite sick, is now convalescing.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reid, of Greendale, visited her niece, Miss Rosa Reid, at "Old Homestead."

Mrs. James B. Lyne had the misfortune to sprain her ankle quite seriously a few days ago, and as yet has not recovered the use of it.

The following were guests of Mrs. Rosa Reid during the past week: Mrs. S. F. Doherty, Mrs. Andrew Hundley, Mrs. Emma Bradley, Miss Edith Bradley and Miss Bessie Cary, all of Richmond.

Charles Berry and Miss Florence Chadwick of New Kent and Mr. and Mrs. James Crittendon and little daughter, Mary, of Charles City county.

Mr. Willis Lyne has the pavilion at "Old Grove" and will open up during the coming week, where he will have on sale choice confections, ice-cream, soft drinks and everything that goes to make an up-to-date treat.

As Mrs. Lyne is a very popular young man, no fear is entertained of his not being successful.

His many friends are wishing him well. He will have on sale the daily Richmond papers.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS.
There will be services at the Methodist Episcopal Church at 11:30 A. M. Rev. J. W. Fizer, who so acceptably preached here on the fifth Sunday in November last, will supply for the pastor during his absence from town.

Services at Marshall Memorial Church (First Unitarian) to-morrow at 2:30 P. M. when the pastor, Rev. A. N. Somers, will discourse on Emerson, it being the one hundredth anniversary of Emerson's birth.

The Highland Springs Branch of the National Woman's Alliance will hold an annual sale on Memorial Day, the 30th of May, when many choice varieties of a truly delicious kind will be served by dainty maidens.

Rev. J. F. Outhrell is visiting his mother in Portsmouth, Va. He will be absent from his charge for a short while only. He will also visit Baltimore during his absence.

There will be a strawberry festival and entertainment on the 27th inst. in Methodist Church Hall. There will also be on sale ice-cream and cake and all that goes to make a true festival, and it will no doubt be largely attended and enjoyed as is usually the case.

Mrs. J. Kidd is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Masters Wayland and Douglas Kidd are able to be out, after a very severe attack of measles.

Messrs. Ina Lou and Jane Kidd are still confined to their beds with measles.